

Counsellors

General Description:

Counsellors are the “dorm stewards” in the rooms with the Students. The Counsellors will take the responsibility of ensuring that each Student is well taken care of and will seek to invest in their lives in the realm of discipleship. The Counsellors are the liaisons between the Head Dorm Steward(s) and the Students, and vice-versa. The Counsellors will report and work directly under the Head Dorm Steward(s).

Specific roles/ areas of oversight:

- Counsellors will participate in all events with the Students, including: Classes, Special Events, Games/ Activities, dorm cleaning, Missions Day, Workshops, meals, etc. unless otherwise directed by the Head Dorm Stewards or the Director
- Complete room/bed checks each morning before Classes to prevent your room being assigned housekeeping/ cleaning toilets for failure to make beds/ general uncleanliness
- Check your room nightly to ensure that all Students are accounted for
- Be available to Students for prayer, support and discipleship at all times in the day/ night
- Be ready to share your testimony or a short devotional at any time during the programme(s)
